UTAH TEACHERS SELECTED FOR NATIONAL HISTORY DAY FALL WEBINAR SERIES

19 October 2021, College Park, MD – This autumn, National History Day® (NHD) selected several teachers from Utah for the fall professional development program entitled Inspiring Student Research with the Library of Congress.

Participants from Utah include:

- Mrs. Jennifer Klein, Mountain Heights Academy (West Jordan)*
- Ms. Rachael Larkin, Matheson Junior High School (Magna)*
- Mrs. Heidi Stone, Syracuse Arts Academy Junior High School (Syracuse)*
- Mrs. Krista White, Sunrise Ridge Intermediate School (St. George)*
- Mrs. Julia Winslow, Providence Hall Junior School (Herriman)*

Now in its second year, this online course focuses on using Library of Congress primary and secondary sources to develop and support student research skills and is a feature of NHD's membership in the Library of Congress Teaching with Primary Sources (TPS) Consortium. The learning modules support NHD's 2022 theme Debate & Diplomacy in History: Successes, Failures, Consequences. The course includes four live webinars with an expert historian, and culminates in creating an individual plan for teachers to use resources from the Library of Congress in their classroom in the upcoming semester.

"We are fortunate to have this sustained partnership with the Library of Congress as a TPS Consortium member. Some of the most dedicated educators and subject matter experts work closely with the program's participants," said National History Day Executive Director Dr. Cathy Gorn.

"The teachers in this course develop crucial skills in locating and analyzing primary documents. They also discuss how to use primary
